

How do I submit my content to the knowledge hub?

- Register for an account
- Login into your account.
- Use your profile page to submit the content.
- Content submitted will be subjected to approval before it is displayed on the hub

What makes the Africa CDC knowledge hub different from other knowledge Hubs ?

- Africa CDC knowledge hub encourages bidirectional interaction with the users. Users can post, summarize, discuss on information using the Africa CDC knowledge hub which is different from most of the knowledge hub platforms.
- Information processing. The Africa CDC Knowledge hub processes information to produce meaningful datasets and visualizations.

What categories of information do provide?

- Public Health Resources
- Workforce Rosters

How secure is my data with Africa CDC?

- Passwords are encrypted.
- User data is governed by the AU data privacy policy.

Is it possible to update information shared on the hub?

- Yes

What are the different supported media?

- Videos, Links, images etc

How often is the data in the Africa CDC Knowledge hub portal updated?

- Frequently

Can I use the health knowledge hub portal as a substitute for medical advice from a healthcare professional?

- Yes

Who is responsible for the content on the health knowledge hub portal?

- Africa CDC, individual content Authors and Organisations

What is the maximum number of items I can contribute to the knowledge hub?

- Unlimited

How many versions/attachments of can each document have?

- Unlimited

Is the health knowledge hub portal free to use?

- The Africa CDC knowledge hub is a free public good.

What interactive features does the Africa CDC Knowledge hub provide?

- Forums, Resource contributions in form of summarized papers (Abstracts), guides, Automatic abstracts, forums, search

How can I access the health knowledge hub portal?

- Need an internet connection and type the url:
<https://knowledgehub.africacdc.org>

How reliable is the information on the Africa CDC knowledge hub portal?

- Information is moderated and collected from reliable sources.
- To ensure reliability frequent updates are made by our competent staff on every piece of information we relay on our portal